Applicant's election without traverse of the article invention and the species of Fig('s). 3 is acknowledged. Claim(s) 12-18 are withdrawn from further consideration by the examiner, 37 C.F.R. § 1.142(b), as being drawn to a non-elected invention.

Applicant is reminded that if the amendment of any claims results in a change of the species they read upon, that is required to be indicated. Failure to do so will be construed as an indication that the readability has not changed. In addition, if any new claims are added, it is required that the applicant indicate which of them read on the elected species. Failure to do so will result in a holding of nonresponsiveness.

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. § 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless --

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claim(s) 1-6, 10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. § 102(e), as being anticipated by Bierlein et al. ("Bierlein").

bearing metal material with at least one groove in the rear of the backing material and extending ≤ 120 degrees.

Claim(s) 7-9 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
